FOREWORD

This history of the Heath family was written for the Heath Family Association of Wiconico County, Maryland, which is composed of the descendants of William and Mary (White) Heath who were married August 12, 1822 in Somerset County, Maryland. Only the line of descent has been traced to William and Mary, but for their descendants an attempt has been made to compile a complete genealogy.

In spite of the fact that great care has been taken to ensure an accurate record and every date has been carefully checked, there are undoubtedly errors. It is the sincere hope of the author that none of these mistakes will cause embarrassment to any member of the family. It will be greatly appreciated if anyone who discovers any error or omission will report it.

The genealogy of the descendants of William and Mary has been made possible through the work of several members of the family who have supplied the information not only regarding themselves and their immediate families, but for members of the family farther removed. They have searched Family Bibles and family graveyards and have made inquiries to obtain the dates that make this record as complete as it is. It is with deep appreciation and gratitude that the contributions made by the following to this genealogy are acknowledged:

Rosa Dickerson Catlin

The earliest known member of the Heath family was Haymo de Hethe¹ from Hythe, County Kent, England, who died in 1358. He was Bishop of Rochester in 1333. At the time of the insurrection in London on the return of Isobel, Queen of Edward II, from abroad when the citizens took part with her, he was in Lambeth County, Surrey. He took fright and fled to Lesnes Abbey in County Kent on foot, the Archbishop having already fled taking his own horses and those of the Bishop also. He had several sons, among them:

10 William Heath, born in Tunbridge 1611, married Amy Gale, 1633 at Stepney Church, Middlesex. She was the daughter of Abraham and Amy Gale, Middlesex. William Heath emigrated to America with his relative John Browne of London, accompanied by his brother John and cousin Robert Heath. He settled in Northhampton County, Virginia 1650. This William is without doubt the father of William Heath of Surrey County, Virginia and Abraham Heath¹¹ of Accomac County, Virginia, later settling in Somerset Co., Md.

American Ancestry

Abraham Heath¹¹ settled in Somerset County at Manokin. In 1681
50 acres of land called "Dudley" and in 1685 100 acres of land called "Heath's Quarter" were patented to Abraham Heath. In addition to these original grants, he acquired land called "Rowley Hill" and "Winslow".

In Volume IKL, a book of vital statistics of early Somerset, are recorded the births of the children of Abraham and Ursula Heath as follows:

Parthenia	Born August 8, 1673
John	Born January 29, 1677
Mary	Born May 1, 1679
Abraham	Born October 30, 1682
Jacob	Born August 5, 1685

This is not a complete list of their children as evidenced by the will of Abraham found in the Judicial Records of Somerset County, 1690-92, page 91, which mentions his wife Ursula and children, William,¹² his oldest son, Thomas, Jacob, Mary and Abraham. According to Book IKL, "Abraham Heath died August 22nd, 1688 and was buried in Somerset Co." Before 1692 his widow Ursula married John Lokey of Somerset County.

It is through the son William¹² that the family descent is traced. On December 19, 1702 William and his wife Mary sold land called "Rowley Hill" that had been willed to him by his father Abraham. Family tradition says that the maiden name of William's wife was Wilson but this has not been verified. In the sale of land her name is given as Mary but in his will William calls her Ann and in the administration of his estate her name is given as Ann. The descendants of another branch of the family name her Mary Anne, but my conclusion is that he married twice. William died in 1735 leaving his widow, two sons William and Jonathan, two daughters Mary and Rebecca and an unborn child. In his will (Somerset County Wills Liber E.B. No. 9, F.178) he stated, "I give and bequeath unto my wife Ann my hole and sole estate during my son William's non-age and when my afs, son William comes to the age of twenty one years do possess his part of the Land and Tenements thereunto belonging and my wife Ann shall possess the Rest till my Son Jonathan comes to the age of twenty and one years and then my two sons is to divide one hundred and fifty acres of Land equally between them which is and belongs to my dwelling plantation and my son William is to aid and assist my son Jonathan to clear to the value of Six thousand corn hills and likewise to assist him and help him to plant out as many apple trees as is now in my plantation at this time".

Jonathan Heath went to Hampshire County, Virginia, now West Virginia, and had a family of fifteen children. Wilson Heath, who remained in Somerset County was survived by several children, the oldest of whom was Josiah Wilson Heath who had a part in settling the estate of his uncle William Heath.¹³ Josiah W. Heath is the one mentioned later as Capt. Heath. Our descent is traced from the oldest son William.

This William Heath¹³ was born November 7, 1725 and died October 20, 1791. On August 24, 1749 he married Mary Bannister, (see Hall-Bannister section) who was born December 25, 1731 and died February 25, 1806. (Heath Family Bible)

In his will made in 1783 (Somerset Wills Book EB 17, p.171), he divided his land which was located on the "road leading from Princess Anne Town to George Pollett's" between his two sons Abraham and John, one being given the land on the west side of the road and the other son the land on the east side of the road.

William and Mary had the following children:

Leah	born	8/27/1750	Married Jesse Beauchamp
William	"	2/24/1752
Rebecca	"	5/9/1755	" Josiah Hobbs
Ketey	"	7/24/1757

Betty	"	11/24/1761	" Samuel Pollett

Abram	"	7/20/1769	" Martha Beard Porter
Easther	"	11/5/1771	" Elijah Fooks
14 John M.B.	"	7/2/1774	" Nancy

(From Heath Family Bible)

Evidently both William Jr. and Ketey had died before William Sr. made his will, as their names are missing.

The records show that William Heath Sr.¹³ was a loyal supporter of his country, first of the crown and later of the cause of freedom, and took an active part in its affairs. He served in the Maryland militia in the company of Captain John Waters in 1748. (Maryland Historical Society Magazine Vo. VI, p.188) Later during the American Revolution he served as inspector of Princess Anne Town. (Archives of Maryland, Volume 45, p. 238)

William Heath¹³ was a member and elder of Manokin Presbyterian Church in Princess Anne, occupying Pew No. 38. At a meeting of the Session May 8th, 1790 Mr. Benjamin Polk made a "charge against Mr. William Hath, that at his House on a day when Mr. Hath was laying a warrant, that he made use of unchristian and profane language, abusive of him the said Benjamin Polk"  "The session appointed Saturday, May 22nd at 9 o'clock A.M. to meet and hear the charge and evidences. As William Heath was upon a journey abroad the session postponed the consideration of the charge until the 28th May"  "The session was unanimously of the opinion that the charge exhibited by Mr. Polk was supported by his evidences, and upon a vote, determined that considering Mr. Hath's age and standing as an Elder in the Congregation, that this offense is aggravated, and that suspension from the distinguishing ordinances of this church is only an adequate punishment, accordingly, he is suspended until Repentence, and we pray God that he may be made to consider and repent". From "Manokin Presbyterian Church Somerset County Md. Sessional Record 1747-1858".

The family descent is continued through the youngest child, John M. B. Heath¹⁴ born in 1774. His wife's name was given as Nancy Heath, but her ancestry is still unknown. The date of their marriage also is unknown. Their children are as follows:

William Heath¹⁵ was born August 27, 1797
 John M. Heath was born May 29, 1799
 James W. Heath was born January 8, 1801
 Hetty Heath was born December 10, 1803
 Elizabeth H. Heath was born September 12, 1805

The baptism of the oldest child William is recorded in "Somerset Parish Records of Deaths, Births and Baptisms from the year of our Lord 1796" as follows: "William, son of John and Nancy Heath, Born 27 August 1797, Baptd. 11 February, 1798".

John M. B. Heath died February 12, 1828 leaving no will, and his wife Nancy died August 27, 1821.

Their son William¹⁵ married August 12, 1822 Mary White, born September 7, 1803, the daughter of William and Martha (McDaniel) White who lived on the next farm by water. Sometime after their marriage they left Dames Quarter district and crossed the Wicomico River to Nanticoke, settling at present day Jesterville near the place where Oak Grove Church now stands. Mary (White) Heath was affectionately known as "Grandma Polly". My Grandmother Mary Louisa (Heath) Jackson told me many times of how Grandma Polly read letters to her received from some of the family who had gone west. Polly Heath went back home "across the river" occasionally to visit her family, taking with her at times her grandson George Prettyman Heath who recalls being taken to see an invalid sister there.

The children of William and Mary (White) Heath were:

- I John Thomas Wright Heath, born May 4, 1823
Martha Ann Elenor Heath, born Dec. 17, 1826; died Aug. 28, 1832
- II Mary Caroline Heath, born September 28, 1828
- III William David Samuel Heath, born July 9, 1829
- IV Esther Ann Elizabeth Heath, born August 28, 1831
Josiah Heath, born November 22, 1833; died Nov. 27, 1833
- V Virginia White Heath, born June 16, 1835
- VI Henry Prettyman Heath, born July 18, 1838
- VII Edward James Upton Heath, born September 27, 1842

They and their descendants are traced in the following section.

WHITE FAMILY

The earliest White of whom we have record is John White who came to Somerset County from Northumberland County, Virginia, before October 17, 1673. (Somerset County Deeds Liber S.C.O.-3, page 308). In 1699 and 1701 land patents were granted to John White¹ and Richard Wallace jointly. These two patents and two other tracts of land, all of which were passed down through the family for generation after generation are "Dames Quarter", "Friends Contentment", "Father and Sons Desire" and "David's Destiny". These tracts of land were located in the western part of Somerset County between Princess Anne and the bay near Dames Quarter, originally known as "Damned Quarter".

Through the years the Whites were members of the Church of England. Their church was "All Saints, Monie", the Mother Church of Somerset Parish, where they were pew holders and many of the men served as vestrymen. In the parish register are recorded births, marriages and deaths of generations of the family.

John White¹ was one of four men from Monie appointed on November 8, 1692 by the court of Somerset "to assist ye Justices in laying out and dividing ye county into Parishes upon 22nd of this Month (November). This was part of the task of the legal organization of the Church of England in Somerset County. (Torrence: "Old Somerset on the Eastern Shore of Maryland," p. 153)

In his will probated January 20, 1722/23 (Annapolis Wills Liber 18, p. 5) John White made bequests to his son John² and Francis and to his six daughters, Grace Wallace, Susannah Sasir, Mary Urnser, Elizabeth Miller, Rebecca Urnser and Margaret White. His will provided that his daughter Margaret White "remain on my dwelling plantation with her brother John until she marry".

The son John² carried on our line of descent. The administration of the estate of John Winsor who died in 1725 shows a distribution to John White in right of his wife, indicating that John White had married a daughter of John Winsor. The children of John and Elizabeth White were two sons, William and John, and two daughters, Ann Jones and Margaret Neal.

It is through the son William³ that the family line continues. His father John White² willed to him 108 acres of land from the tracts called "Father & Son's Desire" and "Friends Contentment" (Annapolis Wills Liber 31, f. 573).

It is assumed that Thomas White⁴ was the son of William³ and Mary Wright White. This is the weak link in the White family chain. There is no positive proof that Thomas was the son of William.

Thomas White⁴ served in the Maryland Militia during the American Revolution. (Index Revolutionary War Militia List Maryland 1926-1927 p. 370, D.A.R. Library).

Thomas White⁴ died in Baltimore County July 2, 1799, but his will was probated in Somerset County. (Somerset County Wills Liber EB17, f. 731). In his will he mentioned his mother Mary and wife Mary, one of whom was the daughter of Thomas Wright. The most logical conclusion is that his mother was the daughter of Thomas Wright. Thomas⁴ and Mary White were survived by the following children: William White⁵, Thomas White, Gowan White, Rebecca Summers, Sabra McDaniel, Nelly Hickman, Harriss White, Buddey White and James White.

William⁵, the son of Thomas, inherited a part of the tract called "Friends Contentment" which had been in the family since the first John White¹ came to Somerset County from Virginia. William⁵ married Martha McDaniel, the daughter of David McDaniel¹.

David McDaniel¹ served in the Maryland Militia during the American Revolution (Index Revolutionary War Militia List Maryland, p. 220, D.A.R. Library).

David McDaniel¹ died in Somerset County in 1808 and his will was probated there July 19, 1808. (Somerset County Wills Liber EB23, f. 527). His father was David McDaniel² (McDonald). He served in the Colonial Wars in the company of Capt. Wm. McClamy March 24, 1747. (Maryland Historical Magazine Vol. 6, p. 193). He died in 1795 and his will was probated November 10th of that year in Somerset County (Liber EB17, f. 432).

Martha White died and her husband William married again. When William White⁵ died October 5, 1830 (Somerset County Wills Liber JP 4, f. 179) he was survived by his second wife and fourteen children; namely, Peggy Carew, David White, Thomas White, Tubman White, Emeline Jones, Ellen-er Ann, Polly Heath, Sally Beacham, Elizy Ann, Dubrannan White, Biddy Gowen Wright White, Henry Prettyman White, William James Carroll White, and Hampling Wilmore White. In his will probated October 5, 1830 (Somerset County Wills Liber JP4, f. 179) he carefully provided, as was the custom in those days, that his children who were not left timber land should have the privilege of cutting timber and lightwood. In the codicil he stated that two of his younger sons should have the privilege in the marsh to hunt and gun in the woods and that all of his children should have the right of the beach in the tract called "Dames Quarter" to boil salt if they should require it.

During the war of 1812 the British established a permanent base in the lower Chesapeake Bay on a portion of Tangier Island from which they made marauding expeditions. In one of these expeditions in 1814 Dames Quarter was the object of attack and the military encounter was at Haines Point.

A company of militia was hastily organized to repel the invasion, the recruitment being principally in the Dames Quarter district. The detachment was part of the 23rd regiment under the authority of Col. John Curtis Wilson and Maj. Henry James Carroll. William White⁵ was the captain of this regiment.

Haines Point is on the old Kelly farm. The guard was quartered in William Kelly's house for two days from May 31st to June 1st. The men damaged the property by using the log fence for firewood and by driving their carts through the corn fields and potato patch. To the account in Washington of these damages is an affidavit by Capt. Heath. There is also an account of Josiah W. Heath (nephew of William Heath¹³) under date of May 29th, 1814 for two horses and two servants all night carrying notices to officers and men to re-enforce Major Carroll when attacked by the enemy's ships.

In the account of Capt. William White, dated May 22, 1814, there is a charge for horse and cart two days taking guns from Capt. A. Jones to Dames Quarter meeting house for the use of the guard; also a charge for scouring and cleaning the meeting house at Dames Quarter used by the guard. Reference, "The Roberts Family" by Emerson Bryan Roberts.

His home near the village of Dames Quarter (where he died) is still standing, but the marsh is creeping in. He was buried in the family burying ground not far from the highway leading to Deal Island.

Great Uncle George Heath (see IG) has said that Henry Prettyman White, brother of Mary (White) Heath, was called the "grand old man of Dame's Quarter", being a very religious and christian man.

William⁵ and Martha White's daughter Mary, or "Polly" as she was called, married William Heath, the son of John M.B. and Nancy Heath, and with him left the family home and moved "across the river" to Nanticoke.

for six thousand, six hundred pounds of tobacco. (Liber).

His name appears among the list of Tithables for Ground Rent in Accomac in 1663 (Wise: "Ye Kindome of Accawmacke").

1919031

Before his removal from Virginia to Maryland, Thomas Bloyce had begun the acquisition of Maryland land. The first patent is in Somerset County 1649, for 300 acres on Back Creek, a tributary of Little Monie (Patents, Annapolis, Liber).

The immigration to Maryland 1662 is recorded at Annapolis in "Early Settlers' List", (Liber 5, folio 210). He was at that time married, and he brought with him his wife, Frances, and his daughters Frances and Judith.

The Maryland land patents in which Thomas Bloyce appears within a few years of his immigration to Maryland are as follows:

See also Somerset (Original Surveys) p. 201 Penna. Hist. Soc., Phila.

"Success". 300 acres, lying on the Little Monie, on the south side of the Manor of Nanticoke, September 17, 1666. (Liber 10, folio 137, Annapolis). "Bloyce's Hope". 150 acres, surveyed January 1, 1666, for Thomas Bloyce, on the south side of Back Creek on the Little Monie Creek. "Mount Hops", 150 acres, surveyed December 2, 1672.

"Wright's Choice", 50 acres, surveyed July 19, 1679, for Thomas Bloyce, and assigned William Wright, near mouth of Wicomico River. Assigned by Warasquakin, an Indian of the Nanticoke tribe.

"Penny Wise", 50 acres, surveyed July 24, 1679, for Thomas Bloyce, on the south side of Little Monie Creek, in the possession of Bloyce Wright.

"Eason", 50 acres, surveyed, July 20, 1679 for Thomas Bloyce, and assigned William Wright, on the south side of Wicomico River, near its mouth.

"Venture", surveyed July 20, 1679, for Thomas Bloyce, and assigned to William Wright, on the south side of Wicomico River near its mouth.

"Double Purchase", resurveyed November 18, 1679. The records of these patents introduces the name of Wright.

These patents identify the Bloyce immigrant with the first settlers before the erection of Somerset as a County in 1666, and place him with the Manokin group.

"Success" continued as the home of the Wrights until 1856. The tract is on the main road between Princess Anne and Deal's Island about half way between these two points. On it Thomas Bloyce built a fine colonial brick home which stood until it was destroyed by fire in 1855.

Thomas Bloyce died before May 24, 1689. His will is recorded, but it was of no effect. In the Testamentary Proceedings at Annapolis, (Liber 14, folio 149,) is this record - "Was exhibited the will of Thomas Bloyce, late of Somerset County, Maryland, deceased, but no executor named herein, and but two witnesses to the same. William Wright, in the will named, prayed administration, with copy of the will annex. Entered May 24, 1689."

The will itself begins in this wise "To all Christian people whom it may concern: Thomas Bloyce of the County of Somerset, planter, sends greetings. To our Lord God,From love and affection doth leave to my daughter Frances, lawfully begotten of my now wife, Frances Bloyce, and and now wife of William Wright, all the two parcels of land on which I now live, upon the south side of Little Monie Creek, one of the same parcels of land containing three hundred acres called by the name "Success", and the other parcel, fifty acres called "Penny Wise", adjoining the aforesaid parcel with all housing, fencing, etc.....1685". (Liber 14, folio 148, Test. Proceed. Annapolis).

Judith, the younger of the two daughters of Thomas Bloyce and Frances Bloyce, married, September 1671, Stephen Cannon. "Wainwright and Related Families" by Emerson B. Roberts, pp. 48-50.

Thomas and Frances Bloyce's older daughter Frances and William Wright¹ were married December 27, 1669 by Mr. John Winder, one of his Lordship's Justices (Book IKL, p. 230). The children of William and Frances Wright were:

Elizabeth	born	May 12, 1672
Temperance	"	August 12, 1674
Judith	"	July 12, _____
Bloyce ²	"	March 5, 1681
Frances	"	February 21, 1683
Matthew (dau.)		March 3, 1685
William	born	August 10, 1687

We continue the Wright line with Bloyce Wright². Bloyce Wright married Sarah Holbrook, daughter of Thomas and Alice (Leverton) Holbrook. Thomas Holbrook was one of the first vestrymen of St. Bartholomew's Church at Green Hill, Maryland, familiarly known as "Old Green Hill". Thomas Holbrook died November 24, 1718.

In the "Photostatic Copy of Mutilated Remainder of Somerset Parish Register" on p. 31 is this entry, "Thomas Wright³ the sonne of Bloyce Wright was borne of Sarah his mother at Little Money the 29th day July Ano Dom. 1703".

This Thomas Wright³ was the father of Mary Wright, the wife of the first William White³ and mother of Thomas White⁴. Thomas Wright in his will, probated February 8, 1753 (Somerset County Wills Liber 28, f. 442), bequeathed to his daughter Mary White "one negro girl called Hannah to her and her heirs forever after my wife's death". A tract of land and marsh appropriately called "Musketo Hall" lying on Little Creek was willed to his son Henry. He was survived by his wife Rebecca and sons Henry Wright, Thomas Wright and Gowan Wright, and daughters Alice Lacount, Ann Polk, Mary White, and Harris Ballard.

Here we leave the Wright family, as the name ends with the marriage of the daughter of the family.

HALL -- BANNISTER

Charles Hall is listed as one of the "first settlers" (from 1661/2 to the erection of Somerset County, August, 1666) of "Old Somerset" in Annemessex. For coming into Maryland to settle he was entitled to 50 acres of land and also the right to 50 acres of land for each person whom he transported. On January 20, 1665 rights were proved for himself, his wife Alice, Mary Freake and John Walker. On June 6, 1665 300 acres called "Hall's Choice" were patented in his name.

He was a man of some prominence in the county as evidenced by his appointments. In August 1685 he was named as one of the commissioners in Somerset County to carry out the provisions of the "Act for the Advancement of Trade" passed by the General Assembly of Maryland in its session October 2 to November 6, 1683 for the erection of "Townes, portes and places  in the Several Countys within this province". This act provided that 100 acres of land be purchased for each town to be surveyed, divided into streets with an open space for a church and other public buildings and lots sold. He was one of the four men from Annemessex appointed on November 8, 1692 by the Court of Somerset to assist in laying out Parishes for the organization of the Church of England.

Charles Hall and his wife Alice had five children:

Charles (1665-1709) m. 1693 Martha Davis
 Sarah, 1668; m. James Curtis
 Katherine, 1670; m. Wm. Planner
 Alice, 1673; m. John Roach
 Mary, 1675; m. William Bannister
 Rachel, 1677; m. Randall Revell, Jr.

Charles Hall died at Annemessex in 1695 and Alice Hall died there in 1724. Torrence: "Old Somerset on the Eastern Shore of Maryland", pp. 153, 279, 414, 445, 470, 478.

Mary Hall married William Bannister¹ also of Somerset County.

(Will of Alice Hall, Annapolis. Wills Liber 18, f. 253). They had the following children:

William born July 22, 1699 at Annemessex
Charles born February 24, 1697 at Annemessex

(Somerset Parish Records Microfilm, Births p. 83).

Thomas Rachel Mary

(Will of William Bannister, Annapolis Wills Liber 16, f. 242).

William Bannister¹ died in 1718 in Somerset County and his wife Mary (Hall) Bannister died in 1727 in Somerset County, both without wills. Mary Bannister administered her husband's estate and their son Thomas² administered her estate.

Thomas Bannister² in his will probated November 2, 1751 (Annapolis Wills, Liber 28, f. 62) mentioned his wife Sarah, daughter Mary Heath, sons William, Charles, Mitchell, Zekiall, and daughter Leah. In the division of property he speaks of these latter children as his "five youngest children", indicating that Mary was much older. It is possible that Thomas Bannister² married twice and that Mary was a child of the first marriage. This daughter Mary (Bannister) Heath is the one who married William Heath¹³ on August 24, 1749.

Thomas Bannister² in his will left land on King's Branch called "Bare's Chance" and "Woolf Harbor". The tract called "Bare's Chance" was an original land patent dated 1746 (Annapolis Land Office, Liber BY & CS #1, f. 26).

With the marriage of a daughter into the Heath family our interest in the Bannister family ends.
